“ I had just left the home of Gracie Kelley doing a Pastoral visit. As I was going down the road a man at the next house stepped out from the side of the road obviously to talk to me. He introduced himself to me as LD Kelley, He just started visiting with me like he had known me all his life. I had a lot of fun listening to him tell stories about the family, neighbors, church, and pastors. About a half hour later he mentioned he was in the hot sun and I was in the cool car so he thought he'd say bye and not make me suffer any longer. I still laugh at the memory. from Pastor Tom Bentley, Hight Assembly of God
