“ I was very sorry to hear of Dean's passing. I actually just found out today. I would loved to have come to her funeral.I have not been in touch with her the last few years but will always remember her. My mother and hers were the last two women in their family . Deans mother died in the am and my mother died in the pm of the same day. They were very, very close and it was if Ina Mae died and then said come on Mildred its time to go. Dean was named after my mother. We will sure miss her.

“ I've known Miss Deanie my entire life. I'm 57 years old and have so many memories of her when I was a child growing up at South Louisville Baptist Church. She was such an inspiration to me all those years. Then many, many years later fate brought us back together. Unfortunately, the evil disease of Alzheimers has struck my mom and she is now a resident at the nursing home, however, she had the best room mate ever.....Deanie! She kept me informed everyday on mom's day and if she needed extra attention. During this past summer, I cut up and brought mama and Deanie fresh tomatoes with mayonaise. Oh how Deanie LOVED those tomatoes. She would come back from dinner every night with anticipation on her face waiting for her tomatoes! Each night I would hug mama and hug Deanie and tell them I loved them. Will miss her, but I can only imagine the joy on her beautiful face when she passed through the veil and was made whole with no pain and could feel the indescrible love of Christ.
