“ Ruth was the best Grandmother to my girls. They loved going to Grandma's and Pops. They were so spoiled. Ruth made my girls some of the most beautiful dresses. She was an excellent seamstress. She loved her grandkids and her great- grands. She always was at church doing whatever was needed and where she was needed. She was Grandma to so many other children. Ruth had so much patience with children. I asked her one time how she had so much patience. She smiled and then laughed and said i turn this off just like i turn Pop off sometimes. That was her joke but everyone who knew Ruth knows she loved Children.
