

Ruth Fulcher

December 17, 1921 - September 14, 2017

Ms. Ruth Fulcher, 95, passed away surrounded by her loving family on Thursday, September 14, 2017, at her residence in the Bond Community of Louisville, Mississippi. Visitation will be Thursday, September 14, 2017, from 5 p.m. until 7 p.m. at Nowell Massey Funeral Home in Louisville. Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. on Friday, September 15, 2017, in the Nowell Massey Funeral Home Chapel with Rev. Mark Mayo and Rev. Junior Davis officiating. Graveside services and interment will follow in Murphy Creek Baptist Church Cemetery with Rev. Mark Mayo officiating.

Ms. Fulcher was born December 17, 1921, to Herbert Clay, Sr. and Marguerite Shepherd Clay. "Miss" Ruth, a devout Christian woman, was a lifelong member of Murphy Creek Baptist Church. She loved her church family very much; she was very involved in any activity going on at church; and was a faithful member of the WMU. Each week, she mailed the church bulletin to the "elderly" unable to attend church services. She loved to cook and was known far and wide for her coconut cake and rolls. She dearly loved her family and thoroughly enjoyed time spent with them.

Ms. Fulcher is survived by her daughter, Jackie Foreman and husband, Don; and her son, Freddy Fulcher and wife, Patsy, all of Louisville. One of her greatest joys was being "RuRu, Miss Ruth, or Granny" to her five grandchildren: Julie Fancher and husband, Slade; Jeff Whitehead and wife, Kim; Kevin Foreman and wife, LeeAnn; Emily Fulcher; and Jennifer Fulcher. She is also survived by three step-grandchildren: Tracy Stevenson and husband, Hugh; Marty McPherson; and Brandy Randle and husband, Richard. She also leaves behind to mourn her passing 10 great-grandchildren and seven step-great-grandchildren; as well as a host of nieces, nephews, and friends. She was preceded in death by her husband, Jack Fulcher; daughter Linda Fulcher Whitehead; daughter-in-law Judy Fulcher; her parents; two sisters and four brothers; grandson Scott Fulcher; and great-grandson Maddox Miles.

Serving as pallbearers are Duane Culpepper, Mike Eaves, Quinton Hill, Ricky Miller, Richard Randle, and Arnie Strait. Mr. Cecil Crowell will be an honorary pallbearer.

Memorial contributions in honor of Ms. Fulcher may be given to Murphy Creek Cemetery Fund, 5420 Bond Road, Louisville, MS 39339.

Services are under the direction of Nowell-Massey Funeral Home, 724 North Columbus Avenue, Louisville, MS. Memories and condolences may be shared with the family by signing the guest register at www.nowellmasseyfuneralhome.com.

“ Mrs. Ruth was one of the most loving people I have ever known. My childhood was filled with great memories of her and Mr. Jack. Mrs. Ruth was my Sunday school teacher for a time. She always helped in Bible School. And I remember going to WMU in her home with my grandmother and my mother. She cared about everyone. But one of the things I will always treasure the most was her faithfulness to keep my mom informed of all the community happenings through mailing her the weekly church bulletin all the years that my Mom could not get out on her own. Even though Mrs Ruth was considerably older than my mom she was so kind and faithful to minister to someone struggling with poor health and aging. That meant the world to the whole family. Mrs. Ruth was certainly the real thing when it came to being the hands, feet, and heart of Jesus.

“ Miss Ruth was always such a Christian inspiration to me. I always could count on her for a smile and kind words whatever prevailed. It is really hard to think of Murphy Creek without her gracing "her" pew every service. Love you Miss Ruth. Heaven is blessed to have you there.

“ So many sweet memories of my Aunt Ruth. Many fun gatherings at their house with wonderful food that she prepared. Loved my Aunt Ruth and Uncle Jack so much. It is not a loss because we know exactly where Aunt Ruth is, in heaven, it is just we will see you at a later time.
